Cover to Cover

The FACTS Resource Library consists of food allergy resource books, cookbooks, children's books, magazines, videos and various handbooks/newsletters from FAAN. Check out an item by filling out the book's card and place it in the card box. Please remember to return the library item at the next FACTS meeting so someone else may borrow it. This is a great way to check out a cookbook if you're not sure if want to buy it. It's also a great way to introduce food allergy awareness books for our kids. If you need a children's book to share at your child's story time at school, we may have an appropriate title.

If you have any library suggestions please feel free to contact Anne Chandler (the FACTS Library volunteer) at 217-9662 or rnachandler@frontiernet.net

We have another new FA cookbook in the FACTS Library. Linda Marienhof Coss the author of What's to Eat has a brand new cookbook out: What Else is to Eat? The Dairy-Egg, and Nut-Free Food Allergy Cookbook.

If you like What's to Eat, I'm sure What Else will provide more easy, classic go to recipes for your family.

Kids Books: We have a lot of kids books, so if you are looking for a book to bring to your child's story time at school, feel free to check out our borrowing library.

Advocacy and Awareness FAAN's Back to School Grant 2008

FAAN is once again offering a $300 grant to food allergy support groups to support their efforts with Food Allergy Education and Schools. FACTS is submitting a grant very similar to last years. We will propose to send letters to principals of local schools which would explain what FACTS is and describe the food allergy presentations which we offer. The money would be used to purchase FAAN books to donate to the schools, stickers to give the students, and postage. We will keep you updated on our progress.

Upcoming Presentations:

October 13th - Bates-Rich Beginnings Child Care

Volunteer Opportunities

- Make copies of FACTS brochures and handouts
- Help with FACTS presentations
- Support a newly diagnosed food allergic family

Contact Joy Leinenbach if you can help with any of these opportunities.

Check Out the Next FACTS Meeting!

At November 15th's FACTS meeting we will be discussing all of things we need to do to get ready for the holidays:

- Talk to family about keeping your food allergic child safe and in some cases convince them that cross-contamination is a real issue
- Plan menus with family members
- Choose safe recipes for holiday baking
- Pack up pots and pans, food and drink
- Figure out how you will travel with everything you need to bring (medication, food, cookware, dishes, utensils, etc...)

Join us at the meeting to share your concerns and get new ideas!

Halloween Safety Tips

- Be sure your child eats before going out to trick-or-treat so that she will not be tempted to eat the candy.
- Carry your medication with you while you are trick-ortreating.
- After trick-or-treating, have your child trade the candy for a special treat bag you created just for him.
- Hold a food allergy safe Halloween party at your home with your child's friends rather than going out.
